

Mahadi Karim Munif

I graduated from East West University with a BSC in Computer Science Engineering. I love programming. I know C, C++, C#, Java, Python, JavaScript, and SQL, NoSQL. I like to build different kinds of Android apps and web applications using Django, Flask, ASP.NET, and Android Studio. I also love to solve coding challenges from various platforms. I also have experience in data science, machine learning, and image processing.
